

small. Blessings

Delight your customers with a display full of stocking-sized gifts.

by Jean Haller

For Christmas, stocking stuffers are my favorite way to give gifts that may not be large in size, but have a big impact for the recipient. Chances are, even if your customers aren't looking specifically for items to fill stockings, they'll be fascinated by a display of tiny treasures, such as the following items.

All prices are wholesale unless noted otherwise.
